

Sweet Water Heart

Scripture: James 3:9-12

VERSE 1

Check my heart, Lord
Look inside
Not the shoes I wear
Or the face I hide

What I say
What I choose
Motives in my hands
And the words I use

What is noble and right
Pure and lovely, too
Praiseworthy in Your sight

Honor my father
Honor my mother
Teach my heart to love
One another

PRE-CHORUS

Guard my tongue
Guard my way
Keep me close to You
Every single day

CHORUS

Sweet water, sweet water
From my mouth today
Sweet water, sweet water
Take the bitter away
Jesus, have mercy
Jesus, give me grace
Sweet water, sweet water
Flow from a clean place

VERSE 2

It's not the outside
That makes me unclean
It's what comes from the heart
That You always see

So I call on Jesus
For timely help
Keep my eyes on You
Not just on myself

Sweet Water Heart

"Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?"

— James 3:11 (KJV)

LITTLE LESSON FOR LITTLE HEARTS

Words come from inside, just like water from a spring. If our hearts are bitter, our mouths will be too. But Jesus can wash our hearts clean and put His Spirit inside us — so kind, true, sweet words can flow out of us all day long.
